THE TRUST COMPANY NOMINATED AS REPLACEMENT RESPONSIBLE ENTITY FOR LINQ RESOURCES FUND

In a formal notice dated 26 July 2010, Laxey Partners Limited, through its nominee HSBC Custody Nominees (Australia) Limited, requested the incumbent responsible entity (RE) of the publicly listed LinQ Resources Fund (ASX: LRF) to convene a meeting of its unit holders to consider appointing The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited as replacement RE.

Commenting on this opportunity, John Atkin, Chief Executive Officer of The Trust Company said, "We are pleased to be in a position to provide our professional RE services to the unit holders of LRF. As a specialist and independently-owned trustee, we have a significant track record supporting funds with our RE services. Examples include being appointed as independent RE for the Alternative Investment Trust, MAX Trust, the Australian Wholesale Property Fund and the Absolute Capital Yield Strategies Fund."

The appointment of The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited as replacement RE is subject to due diligence and will only take place if approved by an ordinary resolution of LRF unit holders.
